re your letter dated 17.4.87 a term "CONGRESSION" in ewhere.

sub.

retired member of the cial interest in the history ned me that in "The Dictionary definition of Congression comes into the equatorial given by Darlington in 1937, is: "The movement ate." Dr. Harrison, who ears, says that Professor with reference to linked viously used the term with et al. in their "A glossary ntion Darlington as the 1937. I enclose a copy other publications in .Boyes, et al. 1973. I have tems marked with a cross. on the Bateson Letters.

ofessor Mather about your his address is:
ngham, P.O.Box 363,

in re "congression"
You were most kind to make such a diligent effort.

Your reminder about Sir Kenneth was also most welcome. I had very little contact with him since 1947.

Perchance, do you have E. Darlington's correspondence with me, about my article in Heredity 2:145- (1948)?

With many thanks,
Sincerely,

Joe Ledy
